STRAUBENMULLER MAY HEAD SCHOOLS

Board Unanimously Continues Him in Office as Acting City Superintendent.

SHOTS AT GARY SYSTEM

Suggestion Made to Separate Education Budget From Other Finances.

Upon the receipt yesterday of William 35. Maxwell's formal resignation of the city school superintendency and his acceptance of the new position of superintendent emeritus the Board of Education, meeting in Public School 59, in East Fifty-seventh street, decided without opposition to continue Dr. Gustave Straubenmuller as acting superintendent. This procedure was expected, and no election to fill the office permanently will take place for several weeks. Anning 6. Prail, member from Richmond, made the formal motion.

The first dissent from majority action of the board developed over the election of a district superintendent to succeed Dr. John Griffin. The board of superintendents had nominated Thomas O. Baker. Arthur S. Somers, the president, suggested that the matter go over, but Mrs. Isaac F. Russell of Brooklyn voted She was overruled and action

Twice during the meeting Mr. Somer entered acting Superintendent Straub-enmuller sharpy about matters that ap-peared on the calendar. One of these occasions was over a report asking for an appropriation to equip a printing abon in Public School 23, The Bronx. "What kind of a school is this?" Mr.

"A duplicate school," said Dr. Strau-"Do you mean it is run on the Gary an?" said Mr. Somers sharply. Dr.

Straubenmuller nodded.
"Is the idea to continue it as a Garv Straubenmuller appeared non-

In the debate the ques-tion of the segregation of the Board of Education budget from the city finances was discussed.

A proposal to permit married women whose husbands have gone to war to take teaching positions in the city system was referred to the board of examiners because of legal difficulties. The introduction of "the theory and practice of camouflage" was authorized

"The men are being held back from a general strike with great difficulty," said John Stuart, secretary of the Marine Woodworkers District Council. "We doubt if we can hold them back from a general tieup of the Atlantic coast yards much longer. The strike will start unless there are immediate concessions. The men have been awaiting action since December 24 on their demand for an ad-December 24 on their demand for an adjustment of grievances and are tired of waiting.
"A strike movement has been begun

A Strike movement has been begun by the ship carpenters, joiners, boat builders and wood caulkers, and the metal trades, 14,000 men, are now ready to join in. Seven thousand boilermak-crs, iron workers and riveters are on the verge of quitting; machinists, bottom makers, iron chippers and the shipbuilding trades generally are threatening to

The principal trouble is with the car-nenters, who want $6.60 for an eight hour day instead of $4.80, the present rate, which was established by the Ship-ping Board. Union men say the carpenters at army cantonments are get-ting $6.60, and that the best men needed for ship work have been drawn away. They say the union can supply all the workers needed if the wages it de-mands are paid. mands are paid.

15 ENEMY ALIENS LOCKED UP. Federal Agents Made Another Haul in Cleveland.

Twelve other Germans were also being held at the jail for failure to have permits in their possession. The Federal agents have recommended to Washington that the twenty-seven men be interned for the period of the war.

Two Held for Robbery.

John Lenahan of 22 Rector street and John Burke of 503 West Nineteenth street waived examination yesterday in Jefferson Market court and were held in $2,500 ball each to await the action of the Grand Jury upon charges of robbery. The men are accused of hold-ing up several restaurants in Eighth avenue and Hudson street and tak-ing a few hundreds of dellars from them.

Bonus for Const Ship Workers.

SEATTLE, Wash. Feb. 13.—In an effort to increase the size of the night shifts and speed up shipbuilding, the United States Shipping Board has ordered a 10 per cent, wage bonus for nen working in the night crews at Seattle and other Pacific coast shippards.
